

Work!

24.06.09

Patrick Lilley moved his hot R&B night WORK! from Heaven across the river to Vauxhall's Area the Wednesday before last. Having partied at a kicking debut there last Christmas, the urban flava-loving gays and gals knew all too well the pumping music and technical wizardry that was in store. A full five hours of sexy soulful choons were played out for a colourful crowd, meaning that this party is set to shake up a mid-week Albert Embankment for many weeks to come!

• Work! is on this Wednesday (8 Jul) from 11pm until 4am at Area, 67-68 Albert Embankment, Vauxhall, SE1.
