

Logan Presents Matinée: Under Construction

03.02.10

The almighty MATINÉE slammed back into town with a huge party and an Under Construction theme that had muscled up go-gos shaking their pecs wearing nothing more than a tool belt and hardhat at the Fridge last Saturday.

Paul Heron got the crowd moving with a sexy remix of Lady Gaga's 'Bad Romance' before J.Louis took over the decks and worked a packed dancefloor with a filthy gorgeous progressive set, enhanced with vocals from Vanessa Klein who sang her way through a medley of favourites including Eurythmics' Sweet Dreams (Are Made of This) and David Guetta's 'When Love Takes Over'. Superstar DJ Pagano then continued the party with more of his signature beats until sunrise.

Logan later told Boyz, 'Wow – we couldn't have had a better relaunch of Matinée! Thanks to everyone who came – the atmosphere was electric, and we loved making the Fridge light up in true style. Apologies on behalf of the Fridge for the lengthy coatcheck – the issues have been resolved for an efficient future service, guaranteed!'

Logan is back at The Coronet with SuperMartXé Samurai on Saturday 27 February, featuring DJs Hugo Sanchez, Steve Pitron, Tony English and Marlon K Jones. Matinée will be back once again very soon.

• SuperMartXé Samurai is on Saturday 27 February from 10.30pm until 7am at The Coronet, 28 New Kent Road, Elephant and Castle, SE1.
